The place that travel writer Pico Iyer would most like to go? Nowhere. In a counterintuitive and lyrical meditation, Iyer takes a look at the incredible insight that comes with taking time for stillness. In our world of constant movement and distraction, he teases out strategies we all can use to take back a few minutes out of every day, or a ...

I am crazy for Jay Elle's initial stillness here, and the way that once she moves, it's so gradual and the movements so little. I feel so grateful for the chance to take in her perfect back and shoulders and ass and legs, to feel meditative in her presence, and to prepare myself for the extremes of her pleasure, even as she prepares herself.
